

DEATH OF SENATOR JOHN W. DANIEL.

Mr. MARTIN. Mr. President, it is my painful duty to announce to the Senate that my late colleague, Hon. JOHN W. DANIEL, departed this life in the city of Lynchburg on the 29th day of June last.

Senator DANIEL had been a Member of the Senate for nearly 24 years, and had been reelected for a fifth term, which would have commenced on the 4th day of March, 1911. I think I may be pardoned for saying that during his long service in the Senate no Member of the body enjoyed in a higher degree than he did the esteem, the confidence, and the affection of his associates. I think I may say, too, that during his long term of service here no State was represented with more ability and fidelity than Virginia was by Senator DANIEL. As a soldier, as a lawyer, as an author, as an orator, and as a statesman he attained great distinction and reflected honor on his State, where he was admired and beloved as no other public man has been in my recollection.

This is not a time, however, for me to indulge in any extended remarks about Senator DANIEL's public services or noble character. Later on I will ask the Senate to set aside a day when proper tribute can be paid to his memory. I send to the desk some resolutions which I ask may be adopted.

I will state that I do not at this time make a motion for the adjournment of the Senate because there are sad tidings from other States, which will have to be communicated to the Senate by other Senators before the motion should be made.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The Secretary will read the resolutions submitted by the Senator from Virginia.

The Secretary read the resolutions (S. Res. 287), as follows:

Resolved, That the Senate has heard with profound sorrow of the death of the Hon. JOHN W. DANIEL, late a Senator from the State of Virginia.

Resolved, That the Secretary communicate a copy of these resolutions to the House of Representatives.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The question is on the adoption of the resolutions.

The resolutions were unanimously agreed to.

DEATH OF SENATOR ALEXANDER S. CLAY.

Mr. BACON. Mr. President, with great personal sorrow, which I know is fully shared by all Senators, by whom he was so universally beloved, I have to announce to the Senate the death of my late colleague, Senator ALEXANDER S. CLAY. He died three weeks ago, on the 13th day of November, in Atlanta, Ga., near his home.

The time and the occasion, Mr. President, will not now permit, but hereafter, during the present session of Congress, I shall ask the Senate to set apart a day when suitable tribute may be paid to his memory.

I now, Mr. President, offer the following resolutions for the consideration of the Senate:

The VICE PRESIDENT. The Secretary will read the resolutions offered by the Senator from Georgia.

The Secretary read the resolutions (S. Res. 288), as follows:

Resolved, That the Senate has heard with profound sorrow of the death of the Hon. ALEXANDER S. CLAY, late a Senator from the State of Georgia.

Resolved, That the Secretary communicate a copy of these resolutions to the House of Representatives.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The question is on agreeing to the resolutions.

The resolutions were unanimously agreed to.

DEATH OF SENATOR SAMUEL D. McENERY.

Mr. FOSTER. Mr. President, it is my sad duty to announce to the Senate the death of my late colleague, the Hon. SAMUEL DOUGLAS McENERY, a Senator in this body from the State of Louisiana. He died at his home in the city of New Orleans on the morning of the 28th of June last.

Mr. President, I shall not speak to-day upon the great services which my colleague rendered to his native State and to his country, but at a later date I shall ask the Senate to fix a day when appropriate ceremonies can be had and proper tributes paid commemorative of his life, character, and public services.

I send the following resolutions to the desk and ask for their immediate consideration.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The Secretary will read the resolutions offered by the Senator from Louisiana.

The Secretary read the resolutions (S. Res. 289), as follows:

Resolved, That the Senate has heard with profound sorrow of the death of the Hon. SAMUEL D. McENERY, late a Senator from the State of Louisiana.

Resolved, That the Secretary communicate a copy of these resolutions to the House of Representatives.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The question is on agreeing to the resolutions.

The resolutions were unanimously agreed to.

DEATH OF SENATOR JONATHAN P. DOLLIVER.

Mr. CUMMINS. Mr. President, it has become my duty, and a very sad duty it is, to announce to the Senate the death of my colleague, JONATHAN P. DOLLIVER. He died at his home in the city of Fort Dodge on the 15th day of October.

At another time I shall ask the Senate to designate a day upon which we can consider and reflect on his great personal worth and his distinguished public service. At this time I offer the following resolutions.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The Secretary will read the resolutions offered by the Senator from Iowa.

The Secretary read the resolutions (S. Res. 290), as follows:

Resolved, That the Senate has heard with profound sorrow of the death of the Hon. JONATHAN P. DOLLIVER, late a Senator from the State of Iowa.

Resolved, That the Secretary communicate a copy of these resolutions to the House of Representatives.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The question is on agreeing to the resolutions.

The resolutions were unanimously agreed to.

Mr. BACON. Mr. President, this scene in its sadness and in its tragedy has no precedent and no parallel in all the history of the Senate. Having reference to each of the four former Senators whose deaths have been announced to-day, I now offer the following resolution.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The Senator from Georgia offers a resolution, which the Secretary will read.

The Secretary read the resolution (S. Res. 291), as follows:

Resolved, That as a further mark of respect to the memory of the deceased Senators, whose deaths have just been announced, the Senate do now adjourn.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The question is on agreeing to the resolution offered by the Senator from Georgia.

The resolution was unanimously agreed to; and (at 12 o'clock and 18 minutes p. m.) the Senate adjourned until to-morrow, Tuesday, December 6, 1910, at 12 o'clock m.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Monday, December 5, 1910.

This being the day fixed by the Constitution for the annual meeting of the Congress of the United States, the House of Representatives of the Sixty-first Congress met in its Hall at 12 o'clock m. for its third session, and was called to order by the Speaker, Hon. JOSEPH G. CANNON, a Representative from the State of Illinois.

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. Henry N. Couden, D. D., as follows:

O Lord, our God and Father, out of whose boundless love we have our being, through whose boundless love we live and hope, and aspire and pray, increase its power and hold us close to Thee, that our lives may be enriched and ennobled by all that make for righteousness in the soul, a faith deep and abiding, a hope that burns brighter day by day and a love that knows no bounds for Thee and for our fellow men; that we may measure up to the highest ideals of Christian manhood and American citizenship; that the genius of our Republic may more and more obtain. Grant, O most merciful Father, Thy blessing upon each Member of the Congress now convened, that with renewed energy and zeal they may fulfill the obligations resting upon them to the highest and best good of those whom they represent.

Be graciously near to the President of these United States and all his advisers, that with wisdom, justice, and firmness he may execute the laws of the land and amicably adjust the affairs of state to the honor and glory of Thy holy name. Be very near, O Father, to the judiciary, that they may continue the confidence which the people have always reposed in their wisdom, justice, and integrity.

Keep us in peace among ourselves and with all nations, and grant, O God, we beseech Thee, that the day may speedily come when disarmament shall set in, when the differences arising between the peoples of the earth may be adjusted by the peaceful and saner methods of arbitration.

And to Thee we will ascribe all praise, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.
